

Satrong has received the following mail from Satrong's web hosting provider just a few hours after posting (sent by: Rubel Ahsan & Fatemolla) the 'Say no to Jamat' online petition. This petition as you may know has been posted on many other sites and forums. After receiving this mail I entered Sa7rong's e-mail account (i.e. editor@satrong.com) and found that all emails were wiped out, there is nothing left. He even signed the petition on behalf of Satrong without my knowledge !

Satrong will now switch over to another web hoster soon. Please bear with us. I am grateful to you, for the attention and loyalty that Sa7rong.com has received in a very short period of time.

I apologise in advance for a small period in the near future when the site will not be accessible, and please from now on send your writings/articles/e-mails to:
